

THE MOST EXCLUSIVE WAYS TO TRAVEL THE WORLD

Friday 17, September 2010

For an exclusive, luxury, travel experience tourists will have to dig deep into their pockets. The online travel portal HolidayCheck has searched the market to bring together the top exclusive trips for those that can afford an extra special holiday.

Luxury Yacht in Monaco - €640,000

Sip Champagne like the high society, while sailing in the Mediterranean on board your own private yacht. An experienced crew welcomes guests aboard the 300ft Mega Yacht. There is plenty of room aboard for friends, in the 20 luxurious cabins.

Space Flight - €130,000

Live the childhood dream. Experience weightlessness and see the world from above. The exclusive provider Virgin Galactic offers up to 6 tourist places aboard the VSS Enterprise. The first manned test flight in July 2010 successfully reached an altitude of 110km. To book, a deposit of a mere €13,000 is required!

Private Island in the Bahamas – €42,000

For those first class travellers that can afford it, this 13-acre island is the perfect place to rent. The main house and several suites can accommodate up to 12 guests. This is full board to the maximum level of service. A personal Gourmet Chef can meet any culinary desire, and of course the best wine to accompany it. Unfortunately drinks are not included in the price.

Titanic dive – €26,000

The wreck of the RMS Titanic, sunk in 1912 is located at depths of 4000m in the Atlantic Ocean. Today you can visit it by going on a submarine dive. Be careful, the twelve-day expedition aboard a research vessel requires a good standard of physical fitness.

Climb Mount Everest - €42,200

Plenty of time is required to fully experience climbing to the "roof of the world". A 61 day expedition allows participants to climb to 8848 metres with the help of experienced mountain guides. The tour price includes flights, meals, and all you need to survive like tents, radio equipment and climbing gear. Fitness and climbing experience is of course a must.
